

The Power of Yes:

Title of LO: The Power of Yes
Level: B1
Target audience: all college level students
General goals/objectives: listening comprehension about organ donation
Specific goals/objectives:
Materials needed for activity: (check the following) Xinternet access Xprojector Xspeakers _printout XBYOD (Bring Your Own Device - smartphone, tablet) _other: _____
Time: 90 min
Overview: Discuss questions about organ donations; watch a video about organ donations and answer questions about it; conduct brief research about organ donation in own country.
Activity 1 1. Answer warm up discussion questions.
Activity 2 (TED activity) 1. Answer questions based on the video.
Supplementary materials
Related LOs

Reception / Listening	Listening to audio	Can understand the content of the majority of recorded or broadcast audio material delivered in standard dialect on topics in his or her field, delivered relatively slowly and clearly (adapted B1 and B1+)
--------------------------	-----------------------	--

The Power of Yes - Video activity

Objectives: reading short sentences and understanding short personal statements.

Identifying the type of clip (publicity/ promotional)

Learning about the myths and realities of organ donation.

Warm up -

1. Would you donate an organ if requested? Explain your answer.
2. What worries you about organ donation?
3. What are the benefits of donating organs?
4. What can you do if you want to say YES to organ donation in Israel?

Watch the video and answer the questions in it. There are a few research questions that refer to your own country.